Beyond journalism, his legacy shines through his exceptional contributions to Hindi literature. His biographies, including Manjil se Jyada Safar on former Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Shri V. P. He also wrote Bharatiya Samvidhan: Anokhi Kahani, which focuses on the process of drafting the Indian Constitution and the historical and social aspects associated with it. Another contribution of his is Bharat Mai Samaajvaad Ka Itihas, which is regarded as an important resource for understanding the development, rise, and impact of the socialist movement in India.

A close associate of freedom fighter Jayaprakash Narayan, he played a pivotal role in the JP Movement and protests against the emergency, reinforcing his commitment to democracy and justice.

Shri Ram Bahadur Rai's leadership extends to numerous prestigious positions. He is the President of the 20-member Board of the Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts (IGNCA), Patron of the Integrated Talent Development Mission (ITDM), and recipient of accolades such as the Madhavrao Sapse National Journalism Award, Manikchandra Vajpayi National Journalism Award, Bhagwandas Journalism Award, Satyagrahi Samman, and the Jagadguru Ramanandacharya Award.

At SGT University, his vision has enabled significant accomplishments, including the university's role as a co-sponsor of the "Conference of Academic Leadership on Education for Resurgence," which was addressed by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Shri Narendra Modi. Shri Ram Bahadur Rai himself presided over this landmark event, which saw participation from over 350 university leaders.

Reflecting on the university's growth, Shri Ram Bahadur Rai has often remarked, "I am confident that through dedicated efforts, the university will continue to advance its mission to produce capable, responsible, and community-driven individuals." SGT University congratulates Shri Ram Bahadur Rai on this well-deserved honour and looks forward to advancing its mission under his exemplary guidance.
