Offering much more than just beaches, Andamanda Phuket – a Thai mythology-inspired water park – was recently named in Trip Best 2025 – Global Top 100 Family-Friendly Attractions. Its rapidly gaining popularity, particularly among Indian families and global travelers.

Spread across 100,000 square meters, Andamanda Phuket combines thrill, culture, and comfort. With 36 slide lanes, wave pools, and lazy river, guests can enjoy unlimited playtime throughout the day, making it an ideal destination for both relaxation and adventure seekers of all ages.

Among the World's Best for Families: Andamanda Phuket Welcomes Indian Travelers

A standout feature of the park is its inclusivity with customized packages for families, friend groups, and school outings, as well as private cabanas and water villas equipped with restrooms and A/C for added convenience. Parents with young children benefit from designated kid zones, professional lifeguards, and immaculate family-friendly amenities.

What truly sets Andamanda apart is its culinary diversity. With a broad selection of Indian cuisine, vegetarian, plant-based, halal, and gluten-free options, the park ensures that every dietary need is not only accommodated but celebrated. Offering both familiar comfort and the chance to explore new flavors.

Visitors are treated to world-class live entertainment, including Muay Thai showcases and “The Story of Andamanda” a visually spectacular cultural performance that blends folklore, music, and dance to transport guests into a realm of Thai legend.

Designed to welcome guests year-round, the park's mix of sheltered areas, lush tropical landscaping, and vibrant 5 themed zones ensures enjoyment in all weather conditions. Its iconic sculptures and Thai architecture also make it one of the most photogenic destinations in Phuket, perfect for memory-making and social sharing.

Easily accessible from Phuket Town and close to major hotels, Andamanda is well-connected by direct flights from India's key cities, including Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, and Bengaluru.
