This follows the brand's debut in January 2025 with the launch of India's first gold and silver coins and bars Bullion Flagship Store at R City Mall, Ghatkopar West. Both stores offer a one-of-a-kind experience in gold and silver buying, combining luxury retail design with a wide selection of gold and silver coins, bars, and personalized gifting options.

Aspect Bullion store currently offers gold bars in 999 purity, gold coins in 995 purity, and silver bars in 999 purity. You can purchase gold coins and bars in sizes ranging from 0.5 gm to 100 gm, while silver bars are available from 5 gm to 1 kg. The brand also has launched micro-gold products from 0.100 mg to 0.500 mg.

Speaking at the inauguration, Darshan Desai, CEO – Aspect Bullion & Refinery, said, "With the Sky City Mall store, we are taking another step towards making gold and silver purchasing a truly experiential and trustworthy process for our customers. Our vision is to blend tradition with innovation, whether through luxury retail spaces, personalized bullion products, or the upcoming vending machines that will make bullion more accessible than ever."

Guest of Honour, Aksha Kamboj, Executive Chairperson – Aspect Global Ventures, added, "Aspect Bullion is not just building retail stores; we are creating touchpoints of trust, innovation, and luxury for customers across India. Our expansion plan reflects our commitment to reimagining bullion buying, from premium in-store experiences to secure digital platforms and unique micro-gold offerings that cater to the evolving preferences of today's buyers."

The Borivali store marks the second step in Aspect Bullion's ambitious retail rollout, with at least five stores planned across Mumbai this year.

The company also plans to roll out vending machines for gold and silver coins and bars in the next 12-18 months. These vending machines will be installed at temples, malls, and airports across the country. Each vending machine will offer a curated range of gold and silver coins and bars, featuring exclusive designs and premium packaging. Equipped with real-time market pricing, customers can view live rate updates at the point of purchase.
