On 13th and 14th September 2025, at the iconic Taj Mansingh Hotel, around 120 senior executives, entrepreneurs, and decision-makers will engage in a two-day immersion designed to reset the inner architecture for resilience and visionary leadership.

This is not a conventional leadership retreat. It is a by-invitation-only masterclass, curated for first-time participants in The Art of Living's programmes who now stand at the intersection of ambition and purpose. The exclusivity ensures a curated environment where conversations go deeper and learning translates into real transformation.

- Deep meditative practices that expand clarity, resilience, and intuitive intelligence.
- Personal interaction with Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, Founder of The Art of Living. A rare opportunity to engage with one of the world's most influential spiritual leaders, whose insights have guided leaders, policymakers, and visionaries across the world.
- Business and cultural connection: Networking lunches with peers from across industries, and an elevating evening of music to celebrate culture, creativity, and shared purpose

Why It Matters

Longevity is not only about extending years – it is about sustaining vitality in mind and body to make sharper decisions, inspire teams, and fuel innovation. Intuition, when coupled with strategic acumen, enables leaders to move with agility in uncertain landscapes.

This programme addresses the very core of performance: the ability to stay calm under fire, see beyond complexity, and generate energy not just for oneself but for the entire organisation.
