Chitkara University conferred the esteemed Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) upon Joy Alukkas, Chairman and Managing Director of the Joyalukkas Group, in recognition of his exemplary contributions to the jewellery industry, leadership in entrepreneurship, and philanthropic endeavours. The special convocation ceremony, held at the university's campus, was an occasion to honour Alukkas' outstanding achievements and his unwavering commitment to social and community welfare.

Dr Madhu Chitkara, Pro Chancellor, Chitkara University confers the honorary Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) upon Mr. Joy Alukkas, Chairman and Managing Director of Joyalukkas Group

Alukkas, an industry pioneer, has transformed the Joyalukkas Group into one of the largest and most reputable jewellery retail chains globally. His visionary leadership, combined with a deep sense of corporate social responsibility, has positioned him as a leading figure in business and the spheres of education, healthcare, and sustainable development. Through his philanthropic work, Alukkas has significantly contributed to numerous social causes, demonstrating a holistic approach to success that prioritises both economic growth and social good.

The Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) was a recognition of Alukkas's exceptional entrepreneurial acumen and his enduring legacy of positive social impact. Chitkara University, renowned for its commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and innovation, believes that Alukkas's work embodies the values the institution holds dear: integrity, innovation, and social responsibility.

Dr Madhu Chitkara, Pro Chancellor of Chitkara University, emphasised the significance of the occasion, "It is with great pride that we confer the Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa) degree upon Joy Alukkas. His career exemplifies the power of visionary leadership in shaping not only industries but entire communities. Alukkas's contributions serve as an inspiration to our students, faculty, and the broader academic community, motivating us to aspire to excellence in both our professional and personal lives."

During the convocation ceremony, Alukkas delivered an insightful address on the intersection of entrepreneurship and social responsibility. His reflections on leadership, ethical business practices, and the importance of contributing to societal progress resonated deeply with the audience, encouraging future generations to adopt an integrative approach to both business and philanthropy.

The convocation was attended by esteemed faculty members, university officials, students, and distinguished guests. Later a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between Chitkara University and Joy Alukkas, further solidifying its position as a leading academic institution committed to cultivating a culture of excellence, research, and community engagement.
