Honoured for a second consecutive year, the award highlights Crompton's strong focus on safety, as well as its commitment to maintaining high standards across its operations. This recognition further reflects the company's efforts to implement effective safety practices and ensure a safe working environment for its employees.

The award was presented to Crompton by Mr. Nihal Anwar Siddiqui, Professor and Director of COE, Occupational Health, Safety, Fire & Environment, GD Goenka University.

The Global Safety Summit (GSS) is the flagship annual conference and award ceremony, organised by Fire and Safety Forum, a duly registered NGO in India, founded in 2009 which is India's First International Certification & Assessment Body, developing the certification guidelines as per American National Standard Institute, United State of America. The GSS awards are the most prestigious recognitions, showcasing the achievements of industries in environment, health, safety and CSR. This significant event unites global experts and professionals, fostering discussions on the latest trends and best practices in safety, sustainability, and ESG.

Distinguished personalities in the ESG field graced the occasion alongside top companies across various sectors from India. The summit culminated with the presentation of the award winners, including the Safety Award, ESG & CSR Awards, acknowledging exceptional contributions in safety and sustainability.

Speaking on the occasion, Manoj Kumar, Chief Supply Chain Officer, Crompton Greaves Consumer Electricals Ltd. said, “Winning the National Safety Award for the second consecutive year is a significant achievement for us. It reflects the collective commitment of our teams and business partners, and manufacturing facilities-towards maintaining the highest safety standards. This accomplishment demonstrates that safety is not just a matter of compliance, but a core principle deeply embedded in our company culture. By prioritizing safety, we not only protect the health & safety of everyone involved in our operations but also drive sustainable growth and operational excellence.”

The companys dedication to safety goes beyond simple compliance, as demonstrated by the Bethora, Goa plant, which is Cromptons hub of technological innovation. The 2024 National Safety Award highlights Cromptons steady efforts to promote a culture of accountability and security. Crompton assures worker safety while continuously providing its consumers with high-quality products by enabling staff to put their health first and putting in place a number of important EHS measures like:
