The New Rooms Reimagine Elegance

Renowned for their generous scale and impeccable comfort, the newly transformed rooms and suites at Four Seasons Hotel Mumbai now offer an evocative tribute to the spirit of the city. Echoing Mumbai's vibrant textures, each space is imbued with intricate saree-inspired patterns, peacock feather motifs, and geometric borders; subtle cues that nod to tradition while feeling entirely of-the-moment. The design language is grounded in contemporary palettes and clean lines, creating a sanctuary that balances culture with calm.

Modern conveniences are seamlessly woven into the aesthetic. Smart Lutron systems allow guests to intuitively control lighting and window shades, while the blackout curtains promise uninterrupted rest. At the heart of each room is MyBar by Four Seasons, a thoughtfully stocked private bar replenished daily, whether you're craving a revitalizing espresso at sunrise or a smooth nightcap to end the day on a golden note.

The Spa Redefines Urban Wellness

In a metropolis known for its pulse and pace, the newly reimagined Spa at Four Seasons Hotel Mumbai offers a rare gift: stillness. Unfolding over two sun-drenched floors, The Spa has been meticulously redesigned into a sanctuary that invites you to pause, breathe, and return to yourself. Soft natural hues, airy interiors, and healing energy define the atmosphere, setting the stage for rituals that blend ancient Indian wisdom with modern elegance.

Every treatment begins with a grounding Kansa foot massage: an age-old Indian ritual that calms and centers. From there, a curated menu of therapies unfolds like poetry: the Rejuvenating Serenity Massage uses flowing strokes and bespoke oils to dissolve tension, while the 24K Gold Radiance Facial blends precious metals and potent actives for a luminous, sculpted glow. Signature treatments like Myrrh, Noir, and the meditative Neroli Massage offer tailored experiences to meet individual needs, each using botanical oils from Ras Luxury Oils and cutting-edge formulations from French brand Gemology. Couples can reconnect over a candlelit soak in the Spa Romance ritual or indulge in the immersive Blissful Journey, while little guests are welcomed with the Junior's Escape menu. With wellness for every generation, private spa suites with Jacuzzis, Ayurveda rooms, and serene vitality pools, every moment is soaked in serenity.

"Fuelling the physical transformation is our continued focus on enhancing the positioning of the hotel as Mumbai's leading luxury hotel, supported by a team of talented and passionate hoteliers who make each guest feel welcome and special," says Nitesh Gandhi, General Manager, as he helms the hotel's transformative journey.

From immersive room experiences rooted in local artistry to wellness journeys that feel like quiet revelations, the all-new Four Seasons Hotel Mumbai welcomes guests to experience the city's energy through a gentle, luxurious lens.
