Timed to support the growth in jewellery demand before Akshay Tritiya and after Gudipadwa, corresponding with the wedding season, the show will cater to 400+ exhibitors across 700+ booths, and around 10000 visitors.

Mr. Rajesh Rokde, Chairman of GJC, stated, "The GJS April 2025 Show, the 7th edition of #HumaraApnaShow, will be a premier platform for sourcing new designs and trends, catering to jewellers of all sizes. As an apex body, GJC firmly believes in its 3 ethos Protecting, Promoting and Progressing and through GJS, we are striving to achieve all these in one platform. We are honoured to celebrate the 25 years of Hallmarking of Gold in India with the august presence of Honourable Minister of Consumer Affairs Shri Pralhad Joshi ji and this will also give us an apt opportunity to interact with the Ministry and plan roadmap ahead for the most effective and efficient Hallmarking regime."

Mr. Avinash Gupta, Vice Chairman of GJC, added, "The GJS April 2025 Show offers an excellent platform for jewellery manufacturers, traders, wholesalers, retailers, artisans, and others in the value chain to connect with emerging talents and creative minds. As a jeweller, while we contribute to the development of the nation, we should also focus on sustainability and how G&J industry could play a larger role in this. GJS 2025 has scheduled interesting seminars throughout the show, with varied range of topics to cover all aspects of the business."

Mr. Saiyam Mehra, Immediate Past Chairman of GJC & Convenor of GJS and GJC Next Gen, emphasized, "GJS is opening its doors to visitors aged 16 and above, encouraging young minds to delve into the fascinating world of the Gems and Jewellery Industry. The 7th edition of Humara Apna Show builds on its rich legacy, providing a grand platform where tradition meets innovation. This year we have also introduced Silver Pavilion as one of the key attractions in the show. Even with the rising prices in Gold, the demands are very positive, and we are confident that GJS will turn out to be the best show of 2025."

A key highlight of GJS April 2025 will be the introduction of a Dedicated Silver Pavilion, offering an extensive collection of silver ornaments and artefacts. This feature will showcase premium silver collections and provide opportunities for attendees to connect with top suppliers and stock up for the upcoming season, alongside gold and diamond collections.

The event will also feature interactive seminars designed to foster knowledge exchange on current demand trends and the potential for new product launches in the upcoming season.

As a premier platform for showcasing innovative jewellery designs and trends, GJS April 2025 is set to attract corporates, chain stores, and independent retailers from India and abroad. Alongside registered visitors, a curated list of hosted buyers will amplify the business opportunities at the show.
