Hon'ble Member of Parliament Dr. Ashok Kumar Mittal, part of the Indian Parliamentary Delegation visiting Slovenia, reinforced India's uncompromising stance on terrorism and emphasized the importance of global collaboration to counter emerging threats to peace and security.

Rajya Sabha MP Dr. Ashok Kumar Mittal Highlights India's Commitment to Global Cooperation and Anti-Terrorism During Slovenia Visit

The visit comes as part of India's broader diplomatic outreach following the April 22 terrorist attack in Pahalgam, under a national initiative titled Operation Sindoor-a concerted effort to build international consensus against terrorism and ensure global solidarity on this critical issue.

During high-level engagements in Ljubljana today, Shri Ashok Mittal met with:

- H.E. Predrag BakoviÄ, Chairperson of the Foreign Policy Committee of the National Assembly of Slovenia,
- Mr. Miroslav GregoriÄ, Chair of the India-Slovenia Parliamentary Friendship Group, and
- Mr. Vojko Volk, State Secretary and National Coordinator for National and International Security in the Prime Minister's Office.

In these meetings, Dr. Mittal conveyed India's unified and resolute approach to national and global security. Slovenian leaders reaffirmed their strong condemnation of terrorism, calling it a threat that is morally indefensible and incompatible with democratic values.

Dr. Ashok Kumar Mittal stated, "India stands united in its determination to eliminate terrorism and to forge meaningful global partnerships for peace, innovation, and inclusive growth. In an era of shared challenges, cooperation with democratic partners like Slovenia is vital. This visit is a step forward in strengthening our bilateral ties and reinforcing our mutual commitment to a safer, more just world."

Dr. Mittal's participation underscores India's resolve to lead globally through dialogue, strategic alliances, and unwavering principles.
