An Airbnb in Goa perfect for the Valentine's Day weekend

In 2025, solo trips have stolen the spotlight, with over a 185% increase in searches for Valentine's Day weekend this year compared to last year⁽²⁾. As this set of travelers embrace the joy of their own company, seeking freedom and adventure on their terms, Dubai emerged as the most searched destination with an approximately 220% year-on-year (y-o-y) increase in searches for the Valentine's Day weekend, compared to the same period last year. It is followed by domestic favourites like Mumbai, New Delhi, and Goa, and international hotspot, Bangkok⁽³⁾.

Duo travellers are embracing the romantic spirit, with an over 60% spike in searches with Dubai continuing to lead as the most sought-after destination. Other romantic destinations such as Troms, Paris, New Delhi, and Goa rounded out the top five⁽⁴⁾.

Group travel is also making a splash with an almost 40% increase with Dubai topping the charts again followed by Mumbai, Goa, Rovaniemi and Jaipur⁽⁵⁾.

Dubai's versatile appeal, proximity and ease of access have made it a preferred favourite across a wide spectrum of travelers, from adventurous solo explorers to romantic couples and lively groups.
