written by News Mall | September 5, 2025

The Project Management Institute (PMI) today announced its 17th edition of the coveted Project Management South Asia Conference 2025, to be held on 13th September at Anvaya Conventions, Hyderabad. This year's conference will be focused on the theme "Aim High. Achieve More," a forward-looking framework that reflects the expanding mandate of project professionals as strategic leaders and value creators. Inspired by PMI's M.O.R.E. philosophy-Manage Perceptions, Own Project Success, Relentlessly Reassess, and Expand Perspective-the agenda will address the evolving demands of modern enterprises through keynote sessions, executive dialogues, and practitioner-led insights focused on leadership, innovation, and excellence in execution.
