Raaga Experience has successfully launched its highly anticipated “The Temple Series” with a captivating inaugural event held on Saturday, March 29th, 2025, within the hallowed precincts of the Sanatan Dharam Mandir, GK-II, New Delhi, and offered attendees an evening of sublime musical artistry.

Raaga Experience presented The Temple Series-a soul-stirring performance by the Anirudh Varma Collective

The distinguished Anirudh Varma Collective graced the occasion with a performance of exceptional depth and sensitivity, rendering a homage to the venerable traditions of Indian musical and spiritual heritage. The sacred ambiance of the temple provided a fitting backdrop for this confluence of artistic expression and devout sentiment, creating an immersive experience for the audience.

This auspicious event marked the genesis of “The Temple Series”, a worshipful undertaking by Raaga Experience to present the exquisite nuances of classical music within the inspiring and historically significant environs of India’s ancient temples. Conceived as a vital conduit, this series fosters a deeper appreciation for India’s cultural legacy and offers a discerning audience unparalleled journeys that transcend the conventional boundaries of artistic performance. Raaga Experience remains steadfast in its commitment to elevating the stature of Indian classical music on the global stage through the creation of transformative cultural engagements, with the “Temple Series” serving as a cornerstone of this vision, complementing “Raaga Trails”-meticulously curated voyages across India that seamlessly integrate exceptional musical renditions with authentic cultural immersion-and “Sound Scapes“- enchanting auditory experiences where evocative melodies resonate amidst the breathtaking grandeur of India’s natural landscapes.
