The Radiant Wellness Conclave returns with its eighth edition this year, bringing together a powerful gathering of visionaries, innovators and thought leaders. Conceptualised and curated by Dr. Renuka David, the Conclave is a platform that examines well-being through the lens of nine dimensions of wellness: physical, intellectual, social, technology, financial, environmental, emotional, occupational and health.

Dr. Renuka David, Founder of Radiant Wellness Conclave and Managing Director of Radiant Medical Services, celebrating 10 years and 9 dimensions of wellness at the 2025 edition

This year also marks 10 years of the Radiant Wellness initiative, a milestone that reflects the platform's sustained commitment to holistic living and meaningful dialogue on personal and societal transformation.

The 2025 edition of the Conclave will take place on August 9 at Taj Coromandel, Chennai. The theme for this edition is "9 Dimensions of Wellness in an Era of Disruption" – an urgent and relevant conversation in today's fast-changing world. In addition to insightful speaker sessions, this year's Conclave continues to present the T.H.E. Awards 2025, which recognise innovation and impact in the fields of Technology, Healthcare and the Environment. The event will also honour veteran actor and social activist Shabana Azmi with the Radiant Lifetime Achievement Award for her unparalleled contribution to cinema and social equity. Nominations are now open for individuals and organisations leading to meaningful change in these sectors.

Dr. Renuka David, Founder and Curator of the Conclave, said, “In a world that is evolving rapidly and often unpredictably, we need to redefine wellness as something that goes beyond individual health. Through this year’s edition and the T.H.E. Awards, we hope to not just inspire personal transformation but also celebrate those who are creating large-scale impact in society.”

The 2025 edition of the Conclave features an extraordinary line-up of speakers who have made significant contributions to society across diverse sectors:

Col. David Devasahayam, Patron of the Radiant Wellness Conclave and CMD of the Radiant Group, is a decorated veteran of the Indian Army. A paratrooper and NDA alumnus, he transitioned to corporate leadership after nearly three decades of military service. Under his guidance, Radiant Cash Management Services became a sector leader, culminating in a successful IPO in 2023. A Harvard Business School graduate, he champions inclusive business and employment-led poverty alleviation.

Ms. Barkha Dutt, one of India’s most renowned journalists and author, is best known for her fearless frontline reporting during the 1999 Kargil Conflict. With a career spanning over two decades, she has received numerous accolades including the Padma Shri, and international honours from the Commonwealth Broadcasting Association and the World Economic Forum. Ms. Dutt is the founder of Mojo Story and continues to be a strong advocate for truth, equity and freedom of expression.

Mr. Boman Irani, acclaimed actor, director and screenplay mentor, is celebrated for his diverse roles in Indian cinema including Munna Bhai M.B.B.S, 3 Idiots, and Khosla Ka Ghosla. Founder of Irani Movietone and the mentorship initiative Spiral Bound, Mr. Irani made his directorial debut in 2025 with The Mehta Boys. His journey from theatre and photography to film direction exemplifies creative evolution.

Dr. Renuka David, Managing Director of Radiant Medical Services, is a frontline doctor turned wellness advocate. She is the Founder of Radiant Home Healthcare and the driving force behind the Radiant Wellness Conclave. A seasoned public speaker, host, and editor, Dr. David has worked with the Indian Army, Apollo Hospitals, and numerous educational and corporate institutions to promote preventive healthcare and holistic well-being.

Mr. Josh Foulger, President – Electronics at Zetwerk Manufacturing, brings with him over 30 years of global experience in electronics and manufacturing, including stints with Nokia and Foxconn. A champion for gender inclusion in industrial environments, Mr. Foulger is known for building successful global supply chains and driving people-centric execution.
