Spotify to Offer Exclusive 4-Month Free Premium Membership for Times Prime members

Spotify Premium allows users to listen to their favourite music in high quality, without any advertisements. They can play songs in any order, discover new music through the Radio feature, dive into their Sound Capsule to see what their listening looks like each month.

"At Times Prime, we're dedicated to curating exceptional experiences for our members, and our collaboration with Spotify Premium perfectly aligns with this vision," said Harshita Singh, Founding Business Head of Times Prime. "With ad-free music and limitless audio entertainment, this partnership adds a dynamic new dimension to our lifestyle offerings."

With Spotify Premium, members can unlock features like offline downloads and high-quality streaming, delivering a truly immersive listening experience. As an all-access pass to premium content, Times Prime continues to provide unmatched value and an enriched lifestyle for its members.

About Times Prime

Times Prime is an all-in-one digital lifestyle membership offered by Times Internet. It aims to upgrade members lifestyles by providing premium experiences and benefits across categories. With an extensive range of benefits on a single platform, from shopping to entertainment and lifestyle, brands like Starbucks, Myntra, Uber, Disney+ Hotstar, Google One, and many more, Times Prime keeps delighting its members. The idea is – instead of paying for different subscription services, pay for one – and you can access all of these at once. In addition to these comprehensive offerings, Times Prime curates exclusive events and experiences, including movie screenings, live sessions with experts, and dining events.
